DRY GOODS.
NEW YORK, June 27.-For seasons specialties the request is confined to the r quirements of consumption at hand, which continues to take a very fair quantity of stuff. For prospective wants there is a moderate new business in progress and good sales enacted through a large number of ec-lections rather than large individual takings. Fiannels and blankets and Kentucky jeaca are in steady inquiry, and business grows with each succeeding day. There is nothing new in the way of prices and the market shows the duliness usual to the close of
